Wow! I'm 55 years old and jumping around like a 5-year-old with a new bike ~ this is THE best instructional video I have ever watched. I NOW HAVE A WEBSITE!! Okay, it's not that flash, yet, but after years of frustration and failure in this field, I can actually say I have achieved. Thank you, Tyler... truly, thank you.

After having a website designer only finish the initial framework with a 'coming soon' page I was left to figure out WordPress, Elementor along with a few plugins for my products. Your video has been extremely insightful. One question, I would like to direct my business url to the home page versus the coming soon page. Is this a simple redirect in settings? I'm diving in head over heels in attempts to master my website creation. Very grateful for you how to videos. Curious is it painful ...
